Letter No. A-1/[illegible] dated 6th June 1939 from the Sub Division Officer Doddaballapur Sub Division to the Deputy Commissioner Bangalore District Bangalore

With reference to your memo No. C.-A&L. of 20-5-39 dated 20-5-39 and subsequent reminder dated 6th June 39 relating to the representation of Vadi erehalli town people to be represented for the appointment of a non-official President and Vice President to the Municipal Council, I have the honour to state that this is one of the first Municipalities in which politics entered into factions. In this connection I beg to invite your kind reference pertaining to the appointment of non-official Vice President to this town in 1937 and the difficulties that were encountered then will become fully apparent from a perusal of the same. This is a mixed Municipal Council and with one or two exceptions the general level of education in the place is low. The present Vice President is one of such exception but he is not one that was elected as Vice President by the people and as such he is not acceptable to some leading members of the factions. From the study of the local circumstances I am of opinion that there should be official control over this Municipal Council and that the President may be continued as President as hitherto. He may however be instructed to delegate more powers to the Vice President thereafter the result of the exercise of the enhanced powers by him and this will be quite ample for the present.
